

Who We Are

Background

2020 DEER RIDGE CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURAL CLUB

Zhivago Rhodes, founder, and a group of men in the Deer Ridge Correctional Institution were approved to start an African American Cultural Club. At that point, UMOJA NI NGUVU was born. Forty-Four men, an executive board officers developed three events, by-laws, and membership packets for a 750-member institution. Three events were birthed from this BIG IDEA in a SMALL SPACE. The Juneteenth event, The KWANZAA, and the One FUNDRAISER BANQUET annually.

Goals

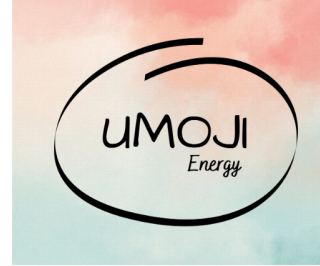

UMOJI, The Global Community Hub was born as an expansion of the UMOJA NI NGUVU. It is now a non-profit corporation. We have three programs: A Support Service Program, An Educational Awareness Program, and Life Choices Skills Training Program.

NOW... we serve as a community hub virtually and within incarceration's walls. Soon, we would like to provide transitional programs, housing, and on-campus living in the near future. We are here to support YOU.
