COMMENTARY

Today we will talk about Bible Verses About Mary Magdalene. She is a significant figure in the New Testament as a devoted follower of Jesus Christ. Mary Magdalene exemplifies love, sorrow, and hope. By reflecting on her life, we can draw closer to the profound truths embedded in the scriptures. Let's be open-hearted and ready to listen as we explore her journey and significance through these verses.

BIBLE VERSES ABOUT MARY MAGDALENE

Mary Magdalene's Background

When we explore the life of Mary Magdalene, we learn that she was not just an ordinary woman; she carried a remarkable story of transformation. Coming from a troubled past, she encountered Jesus and was delivered from seven demons (Luke 8:2). This encounter marked a turning point in her life, leading her to be a dedicated disciple. Understanding Mary's background helps us to appreciate the depth of her devotion. It reminds us that no matter our past, we too are capable of immense love and service especially in spreading the message of Jesus, just as Mary Magdalene did. We can embrace her story and allow it to inspire our own journeys of faith toward healing and purpose.

LUKE 8:2

“And also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out.” – Luke 8:2

MARK 16:9

“Now when Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.” – Mark 16:9

JOHN 20:1

“Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb.” – John 20:1

LUKE 7:47

“Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little.” – Luke 7:47

MATTHEW 27:55-56

“There were also many women there, looking on from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to him, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.” – Matthew 27:55-56

Mary Magdalene As A Follower Of Jesus

As followers of Christ, we can look up to Mary Magdalene as a remarkable role model. Her life was centered around Jesus, as she traveled with Him and witnessed His miraculous works. Her passionate support for Jesus demonstrates the importance of community in our faith journey. We should remember that following Jesus is not just a personal endeavor but also a shared experience. We can take inspiration from Mary as we deepen our relationships with others and encourage one another in faith. Like her, we are called to devote our lives to serving and uplifting our communities through love, just as we saw Mary Magdalene do throughout her journey alongside Jesus.

MATTHEW 27:61

“Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.” – Matthew 27:61

LUKE 8:3

*“And Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod’s household manager, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their means.” – Luke 8:3

MARK 15:40

*“There were also women looking on from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Younger and of Joseph, and Salome.” – Mark 15:40

JOHN 19:25

*“But standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.” – John 19:25

LUKE 23:49

*“And all his acquaintances and the women who had followed him from Galilee stood at a distance watching these things.” – Luke 23:49

The First Witness Of The Resurrection

Mary Magdalene holds the incredible honor of being the first person to witness the resurrection of Jesus. This special role reminds us of the importance of women in the biblical narrative and their contributions to the faith community. As the first one to announce the great news of His victory over death, Mary exemplifies the calling that we all share – to spread the good news of Jesus. This special moment shows us that we are all capable of sharing the message of hope and salvation. Just like Mary, we can carry that powerful message forward, bringing joy and faith to those around us.

JOHN 20:14

“Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus.” – John 20:14

JOHN 20:16

“Jesus said to her, ‘Mary.’ She turned and said to him in Aramaic, ‘Rabboni!’ (which means Teacher).” – John 20:16

JOHN 20:18

“Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, ‘I have seen the Lord!’ and that he had said these things to her.” – John 20:18

MATTHEW 28:1-2

“Now after the Sabbath, towards the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it.” – Matthew 28:1-2

MARK 16:8

“And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had seized them, and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.” – Mark 16:8

Mary Magdalene's Devotion

Mary Magdalene's devotion to Jesus teaches us about unwavering faith and love. After witnessing His crucifixion and the pain that followed, she remained steadfast. Her devotion reminds us of the strength of a heart committed to Christ. In times of trial, we can look to her for inspiration as she demonstrates resilience and courage in the face of uncertainty. Her story encourages us to remain dedicated in our walk with God, trusting in His promises. Just like Mary, we are reminded to place our hope and devotion in Jesus even when circumstances seem heavy; this too is a powerful act of faith.

JOHN 20:11

"But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb." – John 20:11

LUKE 24:1-3

"But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared. And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb." – Luke 24:1-3

MATTHEW 28:5

"But the angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified.'" – Matthew 28:5

MARK 16:7

“But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.” – Mark 16:7

JOHN 20:15

“Jesus said to her, ‘Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?’ Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, ‘Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.’” – John 20:15

Mary Magdalene’s Witness To Suffering

Mary’s experience of witnessing Jesus’ suffering teaches us about empathy and compassion. She observed not only His miracles but also His pain, which deepens her understanding of each person’s struggles. In our lives, we will come across others who carry extensive burdens, and Mary’s response can inspire us to do the same. Her journey teaches us to be present through sorrow, providing support and comfort to those who are hurting, similar to how she supported Jesus. Together in faith, we can be a light for one another, reflecting the love of Christ to the world around us through our compassion and genuine care for others.

JOHN 19:34

“But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water.” – John 19:34

LUKE 23:27

*“And there followed him a great multitude of the people and of women who were mourning and lamenting for him.” – Luke 23:27

MATTHEW 26:56

*“But all this has taken place that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.’ Then all the disciples left him and fled.” – Matthew 26:56

MARK 15:33

*“And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.” – Mark 15:33

MATTHEW 27:54

*“When the centurion and those who were with him, keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were filled with awe, and said, ‘Truly this was the Son of God!’” – Matthew 27:54

Mary Magdalene's Role In The Early Church

Mary Magdalene played a pivotal role in the early church, serving both as an example of faith and action. After the resurrection of Christ, she became one of the first evangelists. Her proclaiming the resurrection to the disciples shows us the power of sharing our experiences of faith. Each of us can take on a similar role in our communities. Revealing our testimonies and encouraging others are essential parts of our Christian journey. By being vocal about our faith, just as Mary was, we actively participate in the building of God's Kingdom, allowing others to encounter the love of Christ through our actions and words.

ACTS 1:14

“All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.” – Acts 1:14

JOHN 20:17

“Jesus said to her, ‘Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, “I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.”’” – John 20:17

Mary Magdalene And Faith In Hardships

Mary Magdalene's story offers a portrait of faith during challenging times. Through her trials and heartaches, she reveals the strength that comes from trusting in God. We know that life can bring obstacles and pain, but Mary teaches us that holding onto faith can lead to triumph. In facing our hardships, we can stand firm in our belief, knowing that God walks with us through the storm. Her unwavering faith serves as a beacon of hope for us all, encouraging us to keep pressing on even when the path is difficult.

JOHN 20:13

*“They said to her, ‘Woman, why are you weeping?’ She said to them, ‘They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.’” – John 20:13

MATTHEW 27:61

*“Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.” – Matthew 27:61

LUKE 24:6-7

“He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the *hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise.” – Luke 24:6-7

MARK 15:40

*“There were also women looking on from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Younger and of Joseph, and Salome.” – Mark 15:40

HEBREWS 11:1

*“Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.” – Hebrews 11:1

Mary Magdalene’s Influence On Christianity

The impact of Mary Magdalene in Christianity cannot be overstated. As one of the key figures in presenting the resurrection, she shapes the understanding of Christ’s mission and the role of believers. Her influence invites us to ponder our call in the Christian faith. By following her footsteps, we can understand our responsibility to evangelize and support one another. Mary’s example of faithfulness and zeal serves as motivation for us to become active participants in sharing God’s love. Just as she set forth to share the good news, we, too, can be inspired to spread hope within our communities.

ACTS 1:14

*“All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.” – Acts 1:14

HEBREWS 12:1

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us.” – Hebrews 12:1

JOHN 12:3

“Mary therefore took a pound of expensive ointment made from pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.” – John 12:3

FINAL THOUGHTS

In our reflection on the life of Mary Magdalene, we discover a tapestry woven with faith, love, and resilience. Her story is a beautiful reminder that regardless of our past, we can embrace new beginnings in Christ. Mary's journey inspires us to remain steadfast during trials and to impact those around us positively. As we continue to seek God and nurture our faith within community, we follow the example Mary set forth for us. Let us boldly share the good news, uplift others, and live out our purpose with joy, just as Mary Magdalene did. There is so much to learn from her life, and together, we can carry forth her legacy in today's world.

The courage and hope portrayed in her story encourage us to forge ahead, spreading love and light, ensuring that we each play our part in this grand narrative of faith. May we draw strength from her life and mirror her dedication as we walk our own paths of faith.

As we close this chapter, let's remember to cherish the inspirational lessons found in Mary Magdalene's journey. Her experiences remind us of the profound impact that faith and love can forge in our lives and the lives of others. Each of us has the potential to be a light in the world, reflecting the love of Christ just as she did.
